

Director of Maintenance and Facilities Engineering

Responsible for maintenance, physical plant, equipment upgrades, capital projects, and team safety improvements.

- Collaborate with department managers to develop capital improvement plan and continuous improvement projects
- Work with operations to develop solutions that reduce equipment downtime, utilize make/buy decisions to cost for new product needs and increase productivity and yield
- Develop preventative maintenance programs/schedules that have limited impact on productivity and maximize cost effectiveness
- Lead safety advocate in department working with EHS to install a safety-first culture
- Ensure that physical plant is compliant with safety and regulatory building codes
- Lead, train, and evaluate team of 26 in maintenance and facilities

Requirements for the Director of Maintenance and Engineering:

- BS Engineering or technical degree
- 5+ years of maintenance and engineering management experience in a manufacturing operation that utilizes processing, packaging and batching equipment/processes
- In depth experience maintaining a highly automated production facility
- Hands on approach to data analysis and problem solving

Salary: 100- $130K depending on credentials plus 15% bonus

Location: North Andover, MA – Local candidates only- no relocation assistance

Leslie Gabriele

Gabriele & Company

Recruiters for Materials and Manufacturing

781 276 7999

leslie@gabrieleandcompany.com

www.gabrieleandcompany.com